Washington - Moscow
1944
No. 390 (11th February)

Re: HUKASHOV.

Supplementary to our message No. 302 - In another conversation with Comrade GUMBOV, LION WIKTOROWICZ, Second Secretary of the Polish Embassy.

[IS group unrecoverable]

gave him and PRUKHIN the job of getting acquainted with employees of the Soviet Embassy and reporting to him on the content of their conversations. On the question of organizing the work of the Polish Embassy and the assignment of duties among his colleagues, LANGE consults with an American citizen, an employee working in the financial section, one BLACK, who had been a personal friend of LANGE's.

For the post of Counselor of the Embassy LANGE plans to propose a certain Professor <sup>OW</sup>WIKTOROWICZ, of Pittsburgh. For the post of Secretary of the Office at Pittsburgh, KOTIKIN, and Doctor RUKHINICH, who is working on a legal consultation, at Pittsburgh.

Spec. No. 290.
